Prepare to lace up your hiking boots and embark on an extraordinary adventure that seamlessly blends the magic of television with the thrill of exploration. "15 Great Walks From The Television" invites you to step into the shoes of your beloved characters and traverse the captivating landscapes that graced the screen. From the rugged coastlines of Cornwall to the enchanting hills of Tuscany, this mesmerizing guide unlocks the secrets of unforgettable walking trails immortalized in iconic television shows.

Chapter 1: A Coastal Odyssey: "Doc Martin" and the Cornish Gems

Journey to the picturesque county of Cornwall, where the beloved physician and grumpy detective, Doc Martin, roams the rugged coastline. Discover the dramatic cliffs of Tintagel, steeped in Arthurian legend, and the charming fishing village of Port Isaac, where picturesque cottages line the harbor. Embark on the South West Coast Path, a breathtaking 630-mile trail that offers unparalleled views of the Atlantic Ocean.

Chapter 2: The Tuscan Tapestry: "Under the Tuscan Sun" and the Chianti Classico Vineyards

Escape to the sun-drenched landscapes of Tuscany, as seen in the heartwarming film "Under the Tuscan Sun." Wander through vineyards, olive groves, and medieval villages that capture the essence of the Italian countryside. Explore the Chianti Classico region, renowned for its exquisite wines, and immerse yourself in the timeless beauty of cypress-lined roads and rolling hills.

Chapter 3: The Scottish Highlands: "Monarch of the Glen" and the Glenshee Ski Centre

Venture into the majestic Scottish Highlands, where the iconic television series "Monarch of the Glen" unfolded. Discover the stunning scenery of the Cairngorms National Park, including the Glenshee Ski Centre, offering breathtaking views of mountains, lochs, and forests. Hike along the Rob Roy Way, a historic trail that traces the footsteps of the legendary outlaw and traverses some of Scotland's most rugged terrain.

Chapter 4: The Yorkshire Dales: "All Creatures Great and Small" and the Wensleydale Creamery

Embark on a nostalgic journey through the Yorkshire Dales, made famous by the heartwarming series "All Creatures Great and Small." Visit the picturesque village of Askrigg, where the fictional veterinary practice is located, and explore the surrounding countryside dotted with rolling hills, limestone cliffs, and quaint villages. Indulge in a visit to the Wensleydale Creamery, renowned for its award-winning cheese.

Chapter 5: The Lake District: "Wordsworth and the Lakes" and the Scafell Pike Summit

Immerse yourself in the literary landscapes of the Lake District, brought to life in the documentary "Wordsworth and the Lakes." Trace the footsteps of the Romantic poet, William Wordsworth, as you ascend the majestic Scafell Pike, the highest mountain in England. Marvel at the stunning views of shimmering lakes, cascading waterfalls, and verdant valleys that inspired some of the greatest works of English literature.

Chapter 6: The Cotswolds: "The Vicar of Dibley" and Blenheim Palace

Explore the idyllic Cotswolds, as seen in the beloved comedy series "The Vicar of Dibley." Wander through charming villages of honey-colored stone cottages and rolling countryside dotted with sheep and wildflowers. Visit the magnificent Blenheim Palace, the birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill, and stroll through its stunning gardens and parklands.

Chapter 7: The Peak District: "Peaky Blinders" and the Chatsworth Estate

Delve into the captivating landscapes of the Peak District, featured prominently in the gripping television series "Peaky Blinders." Discover the rugged moorlands and limestone valleys that served as the backdrop for the Shelby family's exploits. Explore the Chatsworth Estate, boasting an opulent stately home, formal gardens, and a vast park.
