From his early days as a copywriter to his eventual rise to the top of the industry, Jones has seen it all. He's worked on some of the most iconic advertising campaigns in Canadian history, and he's rubbed shoulders with some of the biggest names in business and entertainment.

But behind the glitz and glamour, there's a lot of hard work and dedication. Jones doesn't shy away from the challenges of the ad business, and he offers a refreshingly honest look at the creative process, the business of making people buy stuff, and the human nature that drives it all.

Down and Dirty Tales from Canadian Ad Man is a must-read for anyone who's ever wondered what goes on behind the scenes in the world of advertising. It's a funny, insightful, and ultimately inspiring story about the power of creativity and the human spirit.
