This is the world that Wren Connolly finds herself in. In a society where the government has complete control over the internet and all forms of communication, Wren is one of the few remaining free thinkers. When she stumbles upon a hidden message that reveals a sinister plot to destroy the last vestiges of freedom, she knows she has to act.

With the help of her friends, Wren sets out on a perilous journey to expose the truth and save her society. Along the way, she will face danger at every turn, but she will never give up hope. She knows that the fate of humanity depends on her.
