Prepare yourself for an unforgettable long weekend in the vibrant city of Austin, Texas. The Delaplaine 2024 Long Weekend Guide unlocks the secrets of this captivating metropolis, guiding you through its hidden gems, local favorites, and off-the-beaten-path experiences.

Day 1: Friday

Morning: Immerse Yourself in Local Culture

Kickstart your weekend with a visit to the iconic Zilker Park, a sprawling green oasis in the heart of the city. Stroll along the Lady Bird Lake Hike and Bike Trail, enjoying picturesque views and the lively atmosphere. Afterward, delve into the rich history and culture of Austin at the Bullock Texas State History Museum.

Afternoon: Culinary Delights and Live Music

Indulge in Austin's renowned culinary scene at Shoal Creek Saloon, a beloved local restaurant serving up tantalizing Texas-style barbecue. Savor the flavors of smoked brisket, ribs, and more. As the sun begins to set, head to the legendary Cactus Cafe, a small music venue that has hosted countless legendary musicians. Experience the eclectic live music that has become synonymous with Austin.

Evening: Rooftop Revelry and City Lights

Conclude your first day in style at the W Austin Hotel's rooftop bar, TRACE. Sip on handcrafted cocktails while taking in breathtaking panoramic views of the city skyline. The vibrant atmosphere and chic ambiance make it an ideal spot to unwind and soak up the city's energy.

Day 2: Saturday

Morning: Explore the Scenic Hill Country

Venture beyond the city limits and immerse yourself in the picturesque Hill Country region. Embark on a scenic drive along Highway 290 West, stopping at charming towns like Dripping Springs and Wimberley. Visit the Texas Hill Country Olive Company for an unforgettable olive oil tasting, and soak in the tranquil atmosphere of the Blue Hole Regional Park.

Afternoon: Uncover Barton Creek's Hidden Wonders

Return to Austin and discover the hidden gems of Barton Creek. Hike through the lush greenery of the Barton Creek Greenbelt, a natural haven that offers stunning views of the Colorado River. Explore the Barton Creek Square mall for unique shopping and dining experiences.

Evening: An Evening of Arts and Entertainment

Immerse yourself in the vibrant arts scene at the Blanton Museum of Art, showcasing an impressive collection of American and European art. Afterward, head to the Zach Theatre for a captivating live performance, ranging from Broadway shows to contemporary plays. End the evening with a delicious dinner at one of the many acclaimed restaurants on South Congress Avenue.

Day 3: Sunday

Morning: A Lakeside Brunch and Nature Exploration

Indulge in a leisurely brunch at the Austin Nature & Science Center, overlooking the serene Lady Bird Lake. Explore the interactive exhibits and learn about the local ecosystem. Afterward, embark on a scenic cruise on the lake, admiring the city skyline from a different perspective.

Afternoon: Sustainable Shopping and Local Delicacies

Visit the Sustainable Food Center, a community-supported marketplace offering a wide variety of locally sourced products. Engage with local farmers and artisans, and support the city's sustainable initiatives. Treat yourself to a delicious lunch at the nearby East Austin restaurant Dai Due, known for its farm-to-table cuisine.

Evening: A Soulful Farewell

As your long weekend draws to a close, unwind and reflect on your incredible Austin experience. Attend a gospel service at the historic Greater Mount Zion Baptist Church, experiencing the city's rich musical and spiritual heritage. Afterward, gather your newfound memories and say farewell to this vibrant metropolis.
